

Design Choices

For this assignment I again chose for a clean and minimalistic look. The colour pack was picked based on having the most contrast yet still pleasant for the eyes. Since the data in the dataset can be confusing I included a brief explanation about the variables underneath the scatterplot.