Design Choices

For this assignment I again chose for a clean an minimalistic look. The colour pack was picked based on having the most contrast yet still pleasant for the eyes. The list has been put at the top of the graph in the colours of the respective line. This makes it easier for the user to recognize which line can be toggled to hide or show the line. A one line explanation of the list has been put underneath the graph as well as the source and creator.